After the simulation, students saw a brief presentation by AT&T on the dangers of texting and driving, and at the close of the event students were asked to sign a "prom promise" to not drink or text while driving.

"I was proud of our student volunteers who helped make the message more meaningful," said Principal Yvonne O'Shea in an email to parents. "Talking with many of the seniors afterward, they definitely felt the program was an important reminder."

PTSA's Terri Schinsing, Linda Vannozi, Trisha Turner, and Nancy Kolb were instrumental in organizing the simulated crash.
